

THE PRIMACY OF PRAYER

'If the labour of prayer does not precede as well as accompany all of our work in the kingdom, it will become nothing but the work of man, more or less capably done and with more or less effort and agitation as the case may be, but resulting in nothing but weariness both to ourselves and to others.' Prayer, by O Hallesby

The above prayer quotation describes the principles of prayer by which we seek to envision and motivate Christians into action. Both personal and corporate prayer is encouraged through the many methods of prayer. These include local prayer gatherings, days and nights of prayer, small group and triplet prayer, prayer walking, meditation and study of God's word, and prayer retreats. There needs to be a growing number of Christians who realise that prayer is the key to all we do in God's kingdom work, and is the means through which God works and moves powerfully through His people.

Our heart cry is, 'Lord, teach us to pray.'
